

COMMUNITY ACTION PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN (CAPC) FACILITATOR

Niwasa Kendaaswin Teg is looking for an energetic Indigenous individual to support the early-year team as the Community Action Program for Children Facilitator in the City of Brantford. Under the direction of the Early Years Manager and the Early Years Coordinator, you will be responsible for promoting and creating partnerships to strengthen Indigenous families with children up to six years old by providing programming and services that support and enhance healthy child development. CAPC programming consists of drop-ins, individual sessions, group sessions, home visits, and outreach. This posting is for a full-time position.

Strengths

- Experience working with a diverse community of children, staff, families, and community service organizations.
- Experience effectively applying problem-solving skills and mediation/alternative dispute-resolution strategies
- Knowledge of Indigenous culture, history and language is recommended
- Traditional knowledge of First Nation, Métis, and Inuit issues and realities in an urban Indigenous setting
- Effective oral and written communication
- Organization, and time management skills
- Excellent leadership and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work well in a team environment
- Ability to maintain and promote confidentiality

You will have the opportunity to:

- Plan and facilitate parent/child education sessions
- Implement a work plan with the early years team
- Liaise with Indigenous and non-Indigenous Service Providers as well as Early Years Service Providers
- Engage in Professional Learning with the team

Knowledge and Skills:

- A clear current Vulnerable Sector Screen
- First Aid and CPR, Level C
- Experience in a leadership position
- Resourceful
- Able to respect confidentiality
- Proof of up-to-date immunization for TB, Tetanus, MMR and Polio

Please submit your resume and cover letter to: office@niwasa.ca

By: Friday September 29, 2023 - noon. Only those qualified and selected will be contacted.

Pursuant to Section 24 of the Ontario Human Rights Code (the Code), this position will give preference to applicants who identify as a member of an Indigenous community (First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples). Candidates from this designated group are invited to self-identify in their cover letter, in a transparent manner, as part of the application process.

Niwasa Kendaaswin Teg provides holistic programs and service for Indigenous children, youth, families and community that are rooted in culture and language. Our vision is to provide high quality programming that fosters identity formation and creates a sense of belonging.